Psalms + Proverbs

90 days of awesome

For the next 90 days we will be taking a journey through the poems of Psalms and the wisdom of Proverbs. The goal is to draw into deeper intimacy with God by meditating on some of the most desperate prayers we find in the Bible; as well as diving deep into daily wisdom for living in today's world.

Pay attention because some days we will not be reading in straight order through these Psalms due to the length of each poem. In general however, we will read two Psalms and one Proverbs a day. By the end of the journey we will have read the book of Proverbs almost three full times.

Our hope is that through these words you will understand the heart of the Father more and more with the passing of each Psalm.

Let the journey begin...
